It was then suggested, and the suggestion was carried, that the report be received in the afternoon and that action be taken this morning.

After luncheon the members of conference committee and the Public Service Commission went at it again. Some of them, it is understood, were in Interborough to reconsider its declination, while the others believed the city would be going far enough if it offered to Interborough that it made for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. For good measure it was finally decided to add the two additional concessions already explained. When 4:30 o'clock came Colonel Willi-
